

Chikugo Police Information

“AI Chatbot” is now available to answer your police-related questions!

The renewed “AI Chatbot” is now available on the Fukuoka Prefectural Police’s Website. It can provide some answers or solutions to your police-related inquiries concerning your driver’s license, lost items and many more.

The multilingual Chatbot has been further improved with the expanded language coverage and a newly added text-to-speech function to make it more accessible for all users. Please visit the Fukuoka Prefectural Police website to see how it works!

Activated

Tap on “Fukkei-kun”(the police mascot) to activate the Chatbot.

- ① Tap here to select your language.
- ② Tap here to use the “text-to-speech” function.

What’s New About the Renewed AI Chatbot?

① The number of languages supported on the Chatbot is increased from 5 to 10.

【Pre-Existing Languages】

Japanese, English, Chinese (simplified and traditional), Korean

【Newly Added Languages】

Vietnamese, Indonesian, Tagalog, Nepali, Burmese

② Text-to-speech (Available only on smartphones) and other newly added functions

The Chatbot is now equipped with a speech-recognition engine that works on your smartphone.